

The Bishop's Giving Club for Missions

Indiana Bishop Mike Coyner wishes to enlist at least 1,000 United Methodists who are willing to be a part of "The Bishop's Giving Club for Missions."

Members of the Club for Missions are generous people who are willing to be invited annually to give a special gift to a mission project or need that has been initiated by Bishop Coyner and approved by the Conference Council of Finance and Administration for each of the two annual conferences in Indiana.

How to join? You may join the Bishop's Giving Club for Missions by submitting your name, address or e-mail address to the Indiana Area Office of The United Methodist Church, 1100 W. 42nd Street, Suite 210, Indianapolis, IN 46208. Your name will be listed to receive a special giving opportunity once a year. Once asked, you decide if you want to give to this project or need. Being a member of the Club for Missions only means that you are allowing Bishop Coyner to invite you to respond. Any gift will be gratefully accepted. Members of the Club for Missions are encouraged to give from $500 to $1,000, if possible, for each annual request. Your name can be removed from the list at any time by sending a note to Bishop Coyner.

You are invited to be one of the 1,000 members of the Bishop's Giving Club for Missions. If you wish to accept this invitation, please complete this form and mail to the address given. Thank you for your support to meet the special needs of missions in the future.
